

New York Number Theory Seminar

CONFERENCE ON COMBINATORIAL NUMBER THEORY

Recital Hall
3rd floor, Music Building
Lehman College (CUNY)
Bronx, New York 10468

Friday, December 8, 1989

General information: The tentative conference schedule is as follows:

Registration and coffee	8:30 - 9:00 a.m.
Morning lectures	9:00 - noon
Lunch	Noon - 1:30 p.m.
Afternoon lectures	1:30 - 5:00 p.m.
Reception and cocktails	5:00 - 6:30 p.m.

The following mathematicians will lecture at the meeting:

Paul Erdős (Hungarian Academy of Sciences)
Michael Filaseta (University of South Carolina)
Peter Fishburn (AT&T Bell Laboratories)
Gregory Freiman (Tel Aviv University)
Ronald L. Graham (AT&T Bell Laboratories)
Andrew Granville (Univ. of Toronto and IAS)
Xing-De Jia (Fordham University)
Melvyn B. Nathanson (Lehman College, CUNY)
Andrew Odlyzko (AT&T Bell Laboratories)
Imre Ruzsa (Hungarian Academy of Sciences and Rutgers Univ.)
Eric Schmutz (Drexel Institute of Technology)
Joel Spencer (Courant Institute, NYU)

Each talk will last 25 minutes. Lectures in the various meetings of the New York Number Theory Seminar have previously been published in the Springer-Verlag Lecture Notes, and I would like also to publish the proceedings of this conference on combinatorial number theory.

Please return your registration form by Thursday, November 30. The program for the meeting and travel directions to Lehman College will be mailed to registrants on Friday, December 1.

There is ample free parking on campus. Please indicate on your registration form if you plan to drive to the College.
