A PACKING PROBLEM

A rectangle is packed with identical disks, as shown.

If \( A \) is the area of the rectangle and \( B \) is the total area covered by disks, what is the limit of proportion

\[
\frac{B}{A},
\]

as the number of disks increases to infinity?